Celebrating a Successful Year

As I reflect on the 2016-17 school year, I am reminded of our many successes in and outside of the classroom. Our students and staff members have been recognized for their excellence locally and nationally in academics, athletics, and the arts. The class of 2017 was offered more than $1.5 million in scholarships and 87% will be attending colleges and universities, with over 20 students playing on sports teams. Others are joining the armed services or starting jobs in our community and beyond.

Thank you to our faculty, administration, and non-instructional staff for making all of our campuses a safe and healthy place for our students to learn, play, and compete.

Our Board of Education worked diligently all year to support our District goals and spearheaded efforts promoting the Capital Construction Project that voters passed by a nearly three to one margin. Our budget remains sensible for our community and delivers the services our students need to be successful in all facets of our schools. To keep that budget reasonable, we continued to implement new technology and remained dedicated to our energy program making sure the District runs as efficiently as possible.

In addition, two of our Board Members, Kathleen Chiavetta and Carla Thompson, were recognized as "Rising Stars" at the Erie County Association of School Boards Annual Meeting. Thank you to Mrs. Dyan Scritchfield as she leaves the Board of Education after several years serving our community and welcome to our newest Board member, Mr. Michael Franey who takes office in July.

I would also like to give a heartfelt thanks to our parents of the District. Each of you owns our success just as much as our students, faculty and staff. We appreciate you! Thank you for all of the sacrifices you have made for our students. Thank you for volunteering your time at so many school activities. Thank you for rearranging your busy schedules to cheer on our athletes at their sporting events, to listen to our music programs and to acknowledge the artwork created by our students.

Thank you for welcoming new parents into our schools. Thank you for meeting with our bus drivers and waving at them every day as they worked diligently to get our students to and from school.

It is truly an honor to be a part of the Lake Shore family. I feel fortunate to work with such amazing administrators, teachers, and staff. I offer my thanks to every one of you for your dedication to the students of this community and I value your patience during times of change.

We have much to be proud of in Lake Shore. I thank you for your commitment to our students.

Have a safe and restful summer with your loved ones. Please take care of yourselves, your families, and your friends.

Top Ten Seniors Announced

The Lake Shore Central School District Class of 2017 graduated on Saturday, June 24. Members of the Class have and earned distinction for their academic strength, athletic achievement, artistic ability, musicality, character, service and fields of study. The students with the Top Ten Academic Honors are featured in this issue.

Darcy Paradiso
Valedictorian

Darcy plans on attending Daeman College to become a physician assistant specializing in endocrinology.

Her mother has inspired her to be who she is no matter what and never doubt herself. Being at Lake Shore for four years has shown her how unique we all are.

Her advice is to “stay organized and confident. No matter how hard it will get, just keep on pushing through and try.

You never fail unless you stop trying.”

Olivia Slotman
Salutatorian

Olivia is attending UB to study biomedical sciences. Ms. Rugani has inspired her to be strong and independent and to always strive to be the best she can be.

She feels that joining the Academy of Business and Finance has introduced her to some of the most amazing friends and teachers.

Her advice is: “Don’t get lost in the sauce. Take school work seriously, but always find time to have fun and be happy - that is the most important.”

Alicia Majkut
Ranked Third

Alicia Majkut

Alicia will be attending Canisius College to study accounting.

Her parents have always inspired her to work hard and stay motivated.

Her advice is to "give yourself at least two study halls senior year - late arrival too.

Reward yourself for working hard those last three years."

Alyssa Gardner

Alyssa will be attending Brown University in the fall.

Her mother is her inspiration because she taught her that hard work really does pay off.

She feels that Lake Shore has taught her how to be independent and not to rely on anybody but herself to get things done.

Her advice: "Work hard but stay humble."

Alyssa Gardner
Ranked Fourth

Justin Holland
Ranked Fifth

Justin Holland

Justin plans on attending Stony Brook or RIT to study physics and automotive engineering.

His dad always told him, "I gave you that wonderful brain, now use it."

His advice is that as hard as it may be, enjoy your four years of high school while you can, as they're going to be gone before you know it.

Leah Kruger
Ranked Sixth

Leah Kruger

Leah plans on moving to Oahu for a full year to earn her residency and then continue her education in Hawaii.

Her inspiration is Brittany Spears 2007.

Her advice is "that not trying at all will bring far more regret than failing."

Jon DeMaria
Ranked Seventh

Jordan Scholl
Ranked Eighth

Audrey Parks
Ranked Ninth

Brandon Guzman
Ranked Tenth

Jon DeMaria

Jon plans on attending Geneseo to study biochemistry with a path to medicine.

His inspiration is Mother Theresa because of her selflessness. Her actions helped thousands of poor and dying people, not only in India, but throughout the world.

Jon’s advice: “Remember, you will get stressed! But the best thing to do is let it out, get up, and get it done!

If you quit something just because you are stressed, you’ll never do anything.”

Jordan Scholl

Jordan plans on attending Nazareth College to study political science and philosophy followed by law school at Syracuse University.

She is inspired by her mother and the way she treats others around her, showing them kindness and compassion.

Jordan’s advice: “Live your life but keep your grades up.”

Audrey Parks

Audrey also plans on attending UB to study business and accounting. She has had perfect attendance since kindergarten!

Her mother inspires her because she is such a beautiful, strong woman.

Her advice for underclassmen is to actually try in school and not use it as a playground.

Brandon Guzman

Brandon is attending UB for pharmaceutical sciences.

His greatest influence is his older sister, Samantha, who has shown him the value of hard work and determination.

His advice is not to be afraid to try something new, something on your own.

Plain Talk

from the Board of Education

As the 2016-17 school year comes to an end, it's fitting to recall all that has happened and enjoy the successes that have occurred. One special event that stands out is the Budget Vote. In particular, the Capital Construction Project vote passed with the highest number of votes in recent history!

The Board also thanks the Lake Shore staff, both instructional and non-instructional, for their support in relaying the information of the Capital Construction Project to all who asked for the facts.

Your efforts were instrumental in helping people understand the details of the project and in facilitating an informed voting process.

Of course, the Capital Construction Project would not have become a reality if not for our Lake Shore Administration.

Their efforts in collecting ideas from everyone in all buildings throughout the District gave us a comprehensive plan that spans necessary educational needs, major infrastructure needs, repairs, and renovations.

The LSC Board members thank you for your guidance and focus in developing this plan. We look forward to your guidance and collaboration as this project moves forward.

The Lake Shore Central School Board sincerely thanks everyone who had a part in this Capital Construction Project. We hope you are as excited about this initiative as we are, and we are looking forward to seeing it unfold over the next few years.

The Lake Shore Community has shown its tremendous support of our students and our schools by passing the Capital Construction Project vote with an overwhelming majority! It is clear that this community truly values education and is proud of our District. The Lake Shore Central School Board members thank you for giving us the opportunity to move forward with this project to make Lake Shore a Destination District.

The Awareness Committees from each school building in the District and in Transportation deserve recognition for volunteering to attend various District events to talk with attendees about the project.

The Board members thank you for all the time and effort put forth in support of our students and community.

Board Members Recognized for Service

The "Shine On" awards program, is a three-tier program that recognizes Erie County Association of School Boards school board members for outstanding leadership, learning and service. This award recognizes ongoing commitment and dedication to expanding one's personal knowledge of issues in education, governance and best practices, as well as working with colleagues on other ECASB member boards on issues identified as priorities by the association.

The first tier is reached by completing at least four ECASB training programs in a single year. Often "rising stars" are new members, but they also can be veteran school board members, and this recognition is testimony to their ongoing commitment to learning and professional development.

A Successful Year at Lake Shore

We are proud of the many accomplishments we realized in the 2016-17 school year at Lake Shore. From academics, arts, and athletics to our passing of the Capital Construction Project proposal, we are continuing on our path to being a Destination District in Western New York!

1. The District Budget and vehicle referendum passed in the largest voter turnout in recent history.
2. The Capital Construction Project passed by a margin of three-to-one ensuring quality education and facility for our community in the years to come.
3. Successful implementation of computer-based testing in both ELA and math examinations also showed a 30% increase in students taking the tests.
4. Lake Shore graduated 193 students with an average GPA of 94.5 - they were offered over $1.5 million in scholarships.
5. The launch of Unified Basketball afterschool program.
6. Year long music events open to the public including concerts and musicals at all school levels.
7. The Senior High music program brought home first place honors in Big Apple Performing Arts Consultants National Music Competition.
8. Five Senior High art students will be featured in a national Art Show in Seneca Falls, NY and then at NASA in Washington, D.C.
9. Over twenty of our student athletes will continue their sport at area colleges and universities. (See page 12)
10. Five new alumni were inducted into the Lake Shore Wall of Fame. (See page 10)

Art Students Shine

Five Lake Shore Senior High art students have had their artwork accepted into a national art exhibit at the Women's Rights National Historical Park in Seneca Falls, NY this summer. The exhibition runs from July-August. The theme of the show is "What Inequalities do People Face Today?" Students participating are: Natalie Fessel, Olivia Pericak, Karleigh Easton, Olivia White, and Savannah Battaglia.

After the exhibition, these artworks are going on to the National Aeronautics and Space Administration and will be included in the international "Dream Rocket Project," a project focusing on the fusion of Art and Technology.

2017 Wall of Fame Inductees

In June, five Lake Shore graduates were inducted into our Wall of Fame at a ceremony in the Senior High auditorium. A reception in the media center followed where their commemorative plaques will be hung alongside their fellow members.

Jeff Connors introduced each inductee and shared their biography from their school days to their life accomplishments and community service to the Evans-Angola area. This year's inductees were:

L-R: Arthur Litzinger-Class of 1975; Joseph M. Pisarski-Class of 1964; Robert R. Catalino-Class of 1953; Howard M. Frawley-Class of 1964; and William J. Sills-Class of 1976.

Congratulations to the 2017 Lake Shore Wall of Fame inductees. They are truly representative of the great people our schools produce and how dedicated they are to making our community the best it can be.

Where Are They Now?

Dan Willis rolled into NYC in a loaded-down Dodge Shadow on a crisp fall day in 1992, just days after his 24th birthday. A third generation musician who once ran around his grandfather's music store trying to play ALL of the instruments, Willis arrived armed with a degree from the prestigious Eastman School of Music, a saxophone, an oboe, and an outsized ambition to play with the best musicians in the world. He had honed his musical skills early, sitting in with top Buffalo musicians at twelve years old, playing and working in LA, and touring Japan and Europe. And now he felt ready to earn a seat with the best New York had to offer.

A regular player with the Birdland Big Band, he has also played with notables like Michael Brecker, Roland Vasquez, John Hollenback, Kenny Wheeler, and Ted Nash. At age 21, Willis took the stage at Carnegie Hall for the first time with the Eastman Philharmonia, playing a featured solo on English horn in the final movement of Gustav Mahler's Second Symphony "The Resurrection."

In 1993, just a few months after moving to NYC, he returned to play tenor sax on that same stage. Carnegie is also the setting for a performance with Issac Perlman and Chita Rivera. Since then, Dan has worked in some of the most revered performance spaces in the country. He's played with the NY Philharmonic and the New York City Ballet, has been a featured jazz soloist with the NY Pops and the Boston Pops, and a featured soloist with the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra. In addition, Willis has performed with Chita Rivera at the Carlyle, a gig that included Stevie Van Zandt as a special guest.

Dan has earned a reputation as one of the most sought after woodwind specialists in the city. He has worked extensively on Broadway and has played on cast recordings for Grammy nominated "Thoroughly Modern Millie," and Grammy winners "West Side Story," "Book of Mormon" and "Kinky Boots." Having a command of a wide range of instruments, Dan is as comfortable playing the oboe and the English horn as he is playing the saxophone, and is as adept with the flute and clarinet as he is with an EWI in his hands. That versatility keeps him in high demand year after year. Considering Willis' versatility, it's no surprise that he's also been called upon to contribute to a variety of television and film soundtrack projects. Dan has appeared with Barry Manilow on both "Good Morning America" and "The Rosie O'Donnell Show," with Don Henley on "The Today Show," and with Tori Amos, Renee Fleming, and Martin Short during the final week of "Late Night with David Letterman." In addition, Dan has performed on PBS Masterpiece Theatre and for two PBS Specials: "An Evening with Billy Porter" and a New Year's Eve gala, "An Evening with Audra McDonald and the NY Philharmonic." Bono and the Edge also included Dan in their recording of the musical "Spiderman."

As a composer, Dan has produced his own body of work. Willis' first two CDs, "Quartet" and "Hand to Mouth" focused on pushing more traditional jazz into new territory. As a natural and logical progression, he strived in his next compositions to build a bridge between jazz and classical music. Springboarding off of the work of Parisian Erik Satie, an early 20th century avant-garde composer and pianist, Dan has composed three CDs of groundbreaking work - "Velvet Gentlemen," "Satie I," and "Satie II," which have debuted at NYC hotspots like Birdland and the Cornelia Cafe.

Everybody needs to escape NYC madness from time to time, and what better way to do it than to go on tour with a bunch of world class musicians! Willis has enjoyed touring Japan with Michael Brecker's Quintet, Europe with John Hollenbeck, and Australia with Liza Minnelli. Stateside he's traveled with individual sensations like Chita Rivera, and Don Henley, as well as touring with groups like the NYC Ballet and "West Side Story." Dan Willis' journey from small town New York to the Big Apple has been an extraordinary one. And as Willis will tell you himself, he's just getting started.
