GREAT THINGS HAPPEN IN OUR SCHOOLS:

'Almost, Maine' Set for Feb. 10-12

Love and loss are explored in the critically acclaimed play "Almost, Maine," to be presented by the LSHS Drama Club Feb. 10-12. The production's several short plays are set in the remote, mythical "almost town" of Almost, Maine. Author John Cariani's tale of what happened there on a cold and magical mid-winter night broke box office records when it premiered at the Portland State Company in 2004.

In Sports: Swim Record Takes a Dive & More

- Casey Taylor Breaks School Swim Record
- Hailey Kliszak is Girls XC Fall Scholar Athlete
- Honorable Mentions to Sawynsky & McMahon

A LSHS swim record nearly three decades standing has been toppled by senior Casey Taylor. "Casey broke the school record in the 50 free that was set in 1995 by Derek Smith," says coach Sean Kunkel. "Casey broke the time and qualified for the State meet on Jan. 11th against a tough Alden team. He took first place by at least a full body length with a time of 22.17."
