

Asking questions

Question word	Comment Pourquoi Qu'est-ce que Quand Où Est-ce que (y/n) Quel* (which)
----------------------	---

Guts Does it need more than just the question word	Would this make sense: How you do? Why you did that? When you coming? NO So we need to add in the guts, the "is/do/did" part. How DO you do? Why DID you do that? for this, we have 2 options 1) inversion- simply flip the verb and the pronoun How do you do? (you do=tu vas) Comment _____? 2) add est-ce que (do) How do you do? Comment _____tu vas? THIS IS NEEDED FOR ALL BUT Qu'est-ce que and Est-ce-que!
Verb & sentence itself	form the correct tense and add this to end if using est-ce que or invert it if using inversion is it= est-ce

Asking questions

Pratiquez

How do you arrive to school? _____

How is your family? _____

What do you have? _____

What is for lunch? _____

When is school done? _____

When do you return home? _____

Where do you live? _____

Where do you eat dinner? _____

Do you like school? _____

Do you like your family? _____

Did you eat yet? _____

What* is your favorite movie? _____

What* is your birthday? _____

What* is your age? _____