Nouns

A noun is a _____, _____, _____, or _____.

In French you need the article before the noun, like 'the'. All nouns in French must have an article even though we don't use them in English.

I like pizza. -----J'aime la pizza. (French- I like THE pizza)

Did you notice the words le, la, l' or les before all of the nouns? These words are the French words for 'the'. There are four words for 'the' in French.

The reason is that all French nouns, unlike English nouns, have GENDER.

Nouns are either masculine (m) or feminine (f).

How do you know which gender a noun is? There is no logical way. You have to memorize the noun with the article; not camping, but le camping, or la musique. If you don't know, you have to look up the word in the dictionary or glossary.

The dictionary will tell you if the noun is (m) for masculine or (f) for feminine.

Definite Articles = THE
Le is used before a masculine, singular noun that starts with a consonant .
La is used before a feminine, singular noun that starts with a consonant .
L' is used before all singular nouns that start with a vowel or with a silent h .
Les is used for all plural nouns , regardless of gender or vowels.

A COGNATE is a word that means the same in French as it does in English.

Subject Pronouns

To talk to or about people, use subject pronouns to replace their names. Subject pronouns are either singular (1 person) or plural (more than one person).

Singular Subject Pronouns			Plural Subject Pronouns
French	sounds like	English	French	sounds like	English
je/ j'	(jzuh)		nous	(noo)
tu	(to)		vous	(voo)
il	(eel)		ils	(eel)
elle	(ell)		elles	(ell)
on	(ohn)		*****

Things to remember:

- Je becomes J' before a _____.
- Il replaces a _____ name; Elle replaces a _____ name.
- Ils refers to a group of _____ or a mixed group _____.
- Elles refers to a group of _____. No boys allowed!

In French, both tu and vous mean "you." They are used in different ways and you have to memorize when to use them.

Tu (you)	vs.	Vous (you)
Singular & Informal		Singular & Formal
a friend		an adult you don't know
a close relative		a distant relative
someone your own age		someone older
a child		an acquaintance
a pet		a person of authority
		Plural
no plural tu. use VOUS		talking to more than 1 person a group/a class

* When in doubt, use vous. If you meet a French person, address them in the 'vous' form until you hear them use the 'tu' form. It's the polite thing to do.

Infinitive Verbs

A verb expresses _____ or a state of _____. The basic form of a verb is called the _____ and that is the verb you find in the glossary or the dictionary. In order to use these verbs in a sentence, you need to change the verb ending. Conjugation is changing the endings on verbs. Many French infinitives end in –er, which is pronounced like ‘ay.’ Examples of French infinitives are arriver, étudier, nager, jouer, skier, regarder, écouter, téléphoner, aimer.

Present tense of Regular verbs ending in –ER

Many verbs whose infinitives end in –er are called regular verbs because their forms follow a predictable _____. Once you remove the –er ending, you add a new ending to the verb stem to make a sentence. First, you have to memorize the verb endings. Sing them to the tune of Frère Jacques!

pronoun	ending	pronoun	ending
je/ j’		nous
tu		vous
il/elle/on		ils/elles

To Frère Jacques: e, es, e ; e, es, e ; ons, ons; ez ez ez, ez ez ez; ent, ent

STEPS:

Step 1 – Cross out –er, left with verb stem

Step 2 - Fill the verb stem in the chart

Step 3 – Add the ending to the stem (pronoun tells you which ending)

aimer- to like
I like	j’aime	jzem	nous aim ons	nooz em-own	We like
You like	tu aime s	to em	vous aime ez	vooz em-ay	You like
he/she/one likes	il/elle/on aime	eel em/ ell em/ own em	ils/elles aim ent	eel em ell em	They like

Pronunciation – ER verb endings

The only two endings you will ever pronounce are the nous form –ons, which sounds like 'own', and the vous form –ez, which sounds like 'ay.' All the other endings are silent, and they make the shape of a _____ in the chart.

pronoun	ending	pronoun	ending
je	-e	nous	-ons (own)
tu	-es	vous	-ez (ay)
il/elle/on	-e	ils/elles	-ent

Things to Remember:

- Je becomes j' in front of a vowel (aeiou) or vowel sound (h/y).
- Each form has two meanings in English:
 - Je joue = I play, or I am playing./ Elle joue = She plays, She is playing.
- -GER verbs, like manger, nager, ranger, voyager. (to clean/arrange)
 - in the Nous form, the ending is –EONS, not –ons. (pronunciation)
 - nous mangeons, nous nageeons, nous voyageeons
- Once you learn to conjugate 1 regular –er verb, you can conjugate 1000s of them.
- If the verb stem has an accent mark, make sure it remains on the new verb!! (écoute)

It takes two words in French to make a sentence negative, or say 'not' or 'does not'

Steps:

How do you find the verb? It's the action _____, or you can look for the -er verb endings. (-e,-es,-e,-ons,-ez,-ent)

Pronunciation: Ne sounds like _____, pas sounds like _____. In front of a vowel. n' is just a 'n' sound attached to the next word. n'aime sounds like nem.

J'aime	Je n' aime pas
Je joue au tennis.	Je ne joue pas au tennis.
Il étudie.	Il n' étudie pas .

- Ne becomes _____ before a vowel or vowel sound (h/y).
- J' returns to _____, because when negated it's no longer in front of a vowel.
J' écoute. → Je n' écoute pas.
- If there are two verbs in a sentence, only negate the conjugated verb, which is always the first verb. J'aime étudier.....Je n'aime pas étudier.
